OTHER DATES FOR CITIES

EIGHT WILL BE REPRESENTED
AT FAIR.

Governor John C. Cutler issued a proclamation yesterday afternoon, designating "Utah week" at the Lewis and Clark exposition for Aug. 21-26 inclusive. Governor Cutler calls attention in the proclamation to the fact that the celebration is of peculiar interest to Utah inasmuch as she is one of Oregon's near sister states.

He sets aside the following dates for celebration of special city days:
Monday, Aug. 21, Ogden.
Tuesday, Aug. 22, Logan.
Wednesday, Aug. 23, Borekas and Bingham.
Thursday, Aug. 24, "Utah day."
Friday, Aug. 25, Provo, Springville and Park City.
Saturday, Aug. 26, Salt Lake City.

Following the above dates the proclamation reads:
"Citizens of Utah who contemplate visiting the exposition, and who desire to attend during Utah week, former residents of Utah now residing in the Oregon country are invited to participate in the celebration. The National Irrigation congress will be in session Aug. 21 to Aug. 24, and the Ogden Tabernacle choir (200 voices) will be present and assist in fittingly celebrating Utah day."

Governor Cutler and staff will leave for Portland, Aug. 27, to attend the celebration of the Lewis and Clark exposition. The fair during the week of the celebration will be held at the Ogden Tabernacle choir (200 voices) will be present and assist in fittingly celebrating Utah day."

IMPROVEMENT IN FOODS.

Adulterated Stuff Said to Be Disappearing From Market.

State Chemist Herman Harris has analyzed during the past week six samples of olives offered for sale on the local market. In his report he states that every sample was picked up at random on the market and was of first-class quality. The samples were found to be free from adulteration with alum to produce hardness, artificial flavoring, etc. The state and city food inspectors have condemned all adulterated food appearing in the market. The dealers have refused to purchase brands of foodstuffs condemned by the inspectors, and the condition of the market is said to be better now than it has ever been.

RIO GRANDE STRIKE.

Both Sides Continue to Claim the Advantage.

Denver, Aug. 4.—Both sides to the controversy between the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, which resulted in a strike being declared two days ago, continue to claim the advantage in existing conditions and profess to be unconcerned about the outlook. The Rio Grande officials say they are not in the least disturbed by the fact that a number of their train men have quit, for the reason that they are rapidly filling their places with competent men and so soon have a full complement of trackmen again. They assert with renewed emphasis that they will not treat with the Brotherhood in any capacity. President Wilson of the Brotherhood admits that the road is sending out men to take the strikers' places, but claims that they are, as a rule, incompetent, and predicts that in a month the road will lose most of these men from the fact that they are fatter.

Expensive.

"No! I've decided never to accept friendly advice any more."
"Why not? It doesn't cost you anything."
"Well, I've found that it usually costs me my friend."

EVER TREAT YOU SO?

Coffee Acts the Jonah and Will Come Up.

A clergyman who pursues his noble calling in a country parish in Iowa, tells of his coffee experience:
"My wife and I used coffee regularly for breakfast, frequently for dinner and occasionally for supper—always the very best quality—package coffee never could find a place on our table."
"In the spring of 1896 my wife was taken with violent vomiting which we had great difficulty in stopping."
"It seemed to come from coffee drinking, but we could not decide."

"In the following July, however, she was attacked a second time, and this time vomiting. I was away from home ill, and my return found her very low. She had literally vomited herself almost to death, and it took some days to quiet the trouble and restore her stomach."

"I had also experienced the same trouble, but not so violently. It had relieved it, each time, by a resort to medicine."
"But my wife's second attack satisfied me that the use of coffee was at the bottom of our troubles, and so we stopped it forthwith and took our Postum Coffee. The old symptoms of disease disappeared and during the nine years that we have been using Postum instead of coffee we have never had a recurrence of the vomiting. We never weary of Postum, to which we know we owe our good health. There is a simple statement of facts." Name given by Postum company, Battle Creek, Mich.

DOCTOR SALMON WAS IN BUSINESS

Another Chief of a Bureau Who Went Wrong.

FACTS COMING TO LIGHT

SCANDAL IN AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Dr. D. E. Salmon, chief of the bureau of animal industry of the department of agriculture, who has held that office for many years, today admitted that he was the business partner of George E. Howard of this city when the gelatin meat label was patented and also when, in June, 1901, the first contract for the label was awarded by the department of agriculture. After the first contract was secured from the department Dr. Salmon withdrew from his partnership, he said, already practically withdrawn before that. His interest in the printing establishment was not approved.

Dr. Salmon had a talk today with Secretary Wilson, who is investigating a number of matters in the bureau of his department. Dr. Salmon's partnership with Mr. Howard lasted about two years. After that time the Howard Printing company, which was thus financed, did a large amount of business with the bureau of animal industry, of which Dr. Salmon was chief, and other bureaus of the department. Dr. Salmon said tonight that when he and Howard the latter had no money.

Dr. Salmon added that he had had absolutely no part in the "meat label," directly or indirectly, since July 1, 1901.

Secretary Wilson said tonight that Mr. Howard had come to the department bringing with him the books of his firm and showed to him that no one in the department had any connection with the company since Dr. Salmon had withdrawn.

Regarding allegations of favoritism to the great packing houses in the assignment of government meat inspectors, Secretary Wilson and Dr. Salmon, chief of the bureau of animal industry, today expressed the opinion that there had not been any undue discrimination, although conceding that there had been more or less complaint from small meat packers because of the department's inability to send meat inspectors to them promptly.

Dr. Salmon says that the number of inspectors is not large enough, that the department is required under the law to consider the fact that the small companies are not engaged in slaughtering for the export trade.

Manila, Aug. 4.—Secretary of War Taft and party arrived here on the morning of the 4th. Their arrival was made the occasion of a gorgeous water pageant. Came Without Calling.

(Pittsburg Gazette.)

A Cincinnati man was describing the dinner in London that admitted Joseph H. Choate to the society of the old Benchers of the Inner Temple.

"Mr. Choate was in his best mood," he said, "with epigrammatic wit, and anecdotes he kept the table in a continuous roar."

"Perhaps he made his most telling impression with a story about an impoverished young Irish gentleman, the Honorable Denis DeLo, who had been driven forth by poverty from his father's estate, went to London to seek his fortune."

"He had been a gay, convivial blade, and in the little home village he was missed. There was a party one night, a roistering with ten miles that hadn't a soft spot for Denis in his heart."

"Word came to the castle that up at the castle news had been received of Denis. The village at once became a scene of so was soon on its way to see the old lord."

"My lord," said the spokesman, "is true, you've gotten news of yer son Denis?"

"Aye, true enough. News at last, boy. For the phrase was new to them."

"Faith, then, an' phwat might the boy be doin' up in London?" was the question.

"He has been called to the bar," the lord answered proudly.

"The denatation looked to one another, for the phrase was new to them. Finally, in a loud whisper, one said: 'O! don't know what that manes; but from what I remember of the boy, he didn't want no callin'."
